MEMORANDUM FOR: Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT: Report of Separations under Section 102(c) of the National Security Act of 1947, As Amended

1. The following report of separations under section 102(c) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, has been prepared by this Office in collaboration with the Office of Security in response to your telephone call of 14 August 1958.

2. There have been 48 cases since 1947 in which the Director of Central Intelligence has determined separation to be necessary pursuant to section 102(c). In five of these cases, there was not a formal review procedure. However, in one of the five, the employee declined the opportunity for a formal hearing and, in another, the employee was heard by the Inspector General prior to the decision of the Director and personally by the Director following the decision. In 14 cases, the final personnel action effecting separation was "Termination", while the employee's resignation was accepted in 34 cases.

3. The attached statistical summary indicates the number of cases each year from 1947 to date, the number in which there were formal review procedures, and the number in which resignation were accepted. There is also attached an Eyes Only listing of individual cases reporting the name, grade and title, component, hearing procedure, and date and type of separation action for each case.
